The Parish Digest

From the Pastor:

²³Then he said to them all, ‘If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow me. ²⁴For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will save it.
(Luke 9:23-24)

The Disappointing Effect of Consumer Christianity.

Or

Why Christianity Works Better as a Servant Industry than a Service Industry.

If there is one thing that we in America understand, it is this; how to be a consumer. In fact, if you think about it, a lot of our time throughout the week is spent in doing basic consumer activities like; going shopping for food and supplies, eating at restaurants, purchasing tickets for shows and entertainment, paying utility bills (phone, internet, electric, heat, etc...), and doing basic upkeep on ourselves and our possessions (haircuts, doctor visits, auto-service, dental care, etc...).

As consumers, and as good stewards, it certainly makes sense to focus in on our personal needs and/or the needs of our family, and so it becomes natural that we develop a model of life by which we seek after the things that work best for us.

And so it is that we learn to seek out and find the best deals or bargains available to us; embracing the free market by switching utility providers to cut costs, (cont. on p. 4) changing brands for a different experience, or going to a newer company in the hopes of getting improved service.

In a similar way, we use this same model as a means of showing our displeasure; no longer going to a certain restaurant chain because of a bad experience we had, or threatening to, “take our business elsewhere” when a certain product disappoints us, or repeating the mantra that, “the customer is always right!” when dealing with a cashier or clerk who isn’t giving us what we want.

In the secular world, this consumer model may work well for us, but when we live out this same consumer model in regards to our spiritual life, the end result tends to be a very shallow and easily disappointed faith.

Unfortunately, for a lot of people out there, they live as Consumer Christians, that is to say, they treat their interaction with the church in the same way as they would with any secular business.

Thus Consumer Christians will tend to focus on questions regarding products and services. “What does your church have to offer me and my family?” “Is there an active youth group?” “Do you do contemporary worship?” “How much involvement do I need to have?” “What do I get in return for my offering support?”

And while on the surface such an attitude may seem harmless, because Consumer Christianity is ultimately self-focused, (i.e. what do you have to offer me) the deeper message and content of the Gospel tends to be overlooked, and one’s personal faith growth is severely limited.

To be fair, and to be clear, we have probably all (to some extent or another) done a bit of church shopping in our lives. And there is nothing inherently wrong with wanting to be part of a church that is active and exciting and providing a sense of community and support.

Where the trouble lies is in the consumer attitude that only asks, “What’s in it for me?”

With such an attitude we miss out on the reality that Christians are called to serve others, to follow the Christ in denying themselves, recognizing that faith is less about us and our personal needs, and more about God and what God has already done for us all.

In the end, Consumer Christianity may offer a small taste of the gospel, but only as we seek to turn the question around from, “What does the church have to offer me?” to “What do I have to offer to others through the church?” will we grow in a spirituality that meets our deepest needs and truly reflects the life of the Christ whom we are called to follow.

Your brother in Christ,

PASTOR MICHAEL

40 DAYS OF GIVING- LENT 2017

Adult Sunday School Study

March 5 – April 2, 2017

The adult Sunday School class, as part of its study of Luther and the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation, will use a new five-week study connected to Martin Luther and his concern for the poor and his rebuke of economic injustice as we go through the five Sunday's of Lent. Participants will come to see the many ways our faith calls us to strive for justice in our world. Included with the economic justice and faith themes will be ties to Scripture and our Lutheran heritage. Chapters are titled as follows: 1. A Household Economy 2. An Economy of Grace 3. Livelihood and Vocation 4. A Just World (Where All Are Fed) 5. A Sustainable Future. Plan to join friends and family as we "journey through Lent" reflecting on where we "hear" God in our daily lives and many of the struggles that are present on the world scene today. So take a closer look focusing on our Lutheran perspective on the economy and how we strive to affirm our baptismal vocation "to strive for justice and peace in all the earth." This class meets in the upper hallway of the Christian Education wing the last room on the right. Time of the class is 9:00 – 10:00 a.m. (There is Sunday School for children Kindergarten and older.)

FROM OUR MUSIC DIRECTOR:

Christmas Cantata practice started in October, meeting every Sunday after church. Then in December, a few Thursday evenings. It was worth all the many practices as the performance on December 18 went really well. I want to thank each of the choir members for attending every practice so faithfully. It was nice to have Barbara Strough's daughter, Sherry Harsh, sing with us.

The Praise Team "Laudate" is doing very well, singing on the fourth Sunday of every month. We continue to do new music each month.

I'm thinking about doing something with the choir for Easter this year. A possibility might be "The Holy City." We'll see.

Sing from your heart and worship the Lord,
Louise Wilson, Minister of Music

We would like to thank everyone who responded to our recent theft with donations of monetary gifts to replace the stolen projector and laptop, and to those who have donated a personal projector or laptop. The generosity of this congregation is amazing. We will not only be able to eventually replace the items, but we will also have spare equipment to be used at various functions. Thank you!!!

Men's Group

The men of Robeson Lutheran Church continue to meet for breakfast and fellowship on the second Saturday of each month at 7:30 a.m. here in our own Hoeffler Hall. This is a great opportunity to get to know your brothers in Christ and learn more about your faith through brief bible study and mutual conversation. Come and see how the men of Robeson live out their discipleship. The next Men's Breakfast is scheduled for February 11 at 7:30 a.m. in Hoeffler Hall.

Robeson Robins Senior Group

Lots of effort goes into planning events and the Robins would love to have more people participate. Please call Billie at 610-401-8496 if you would like more information about the Robeson Robins.

THANK YOU!

Bill Moore and his family would like to thank everyone who attended his party on Dec. 18th to celebrate his 100th birthday. It was a very special day!!

Also thank you to everyone who sent Bill cards and gifts and special thanks to those who donated items for the veterans. The donations were delivered to the Birdsboro VFW on Dec. 27th and were turned over to the people who distribute the items on the following day. We were told the need, especially in the winter months, is great and they were very thankful for the items. Money donations were deposited in the VFW's Veterans Fund which is used to purchase additional things that are needed. The wonderful response to Bill's request to help veterans was very much appreciated!!

THANK YOU: Your generosity during the Christmas season was very much appreciated! We received Christmas cards and thank yous from friends and members, the organizations that we helped such as Trucks for Maddox, St. Vincent DePaul Society (Thanksgiving offering), St. Benedict's Food Pantry, Safe Berks, angel tree recipients, and Christmas stockings. One of our own members received a small gift card from an anonymous donor and expressed thanks for the friends here at Robeson and the appreciation of receiving this gift after a hard year and limited income, stating that they are very grateful and that God does provide.

You shared the real meaning of Christmas with those in need. Thank you all.

LEAVING A LEGACY THAT GOES BEYOND DEATH

When we recall the names of the faithful who have died, our minds are often filled with precious memories. In our thoughts we are reminded that we are their legacy, that is to say, much of what we have – in both material and non-material things – has been handed down to us from them. But what will we hand down to those who follow? How will we be remembered by those who come after us? Will we leave more than an empty spot in a pew?

As you plan for the distribution of your assets at your death, please consider a charitable bequest to Robeson Lutheran Church. This is one way your faith can be transferred to the next generation. This, and other types of planned gifts, can undergird our congregation's ministry in perpetuity, providing resources that will allow future generations of Christians to worship, serve others, and continue the vital ministries of this church. If you have questions about planned giving, you can talk to your personal financial advisor or speak to our congregational Thrivent representative John Lauer at his Morgantown office (610)-286-5986.

THRIVENT CHOICE DOLLARS: Our thanks to those members/friends of the congregation who have designated Robeson Lutheran Church as the charity of choice for their Thrivent Choice Dollars. If you have received a letter from Thrivent indicating that you are eligible for this plan, please consider our congregation as you help direct Thrivent Financial's charitable funds. Our last contribution was in early November, but with your help we will be looking for future funds.
